Original Alcohol Ink painting

Amy I Jacoby

Artist

My work includes Alcohol Ink paintings and prints on plates, trinket dishes, ceramic tiles, glass bottles and greeting cards.

My love of nature comes through in the floral prints I'm exhibiting, while the fluid, abstract designs bring out the introspective, imaginative, and curious aspects of my personality. The luggage tags, coasters and other gift shop items allow me to integrate painting with my background in graphic design.

I stumbled upon Alcohol Inks a year and a half ago while seeking a way to boost the vibrancy of my colors. Playing with methods, applications and substrates is deeply satisfying. I founded Amy Art Designs in 2002 in my home studio in Oreland, Pennsylvania. In addition to painting and freelance graphic design work, I stay busy as a part-time production artist for the Chestnut Hill Local newspaper. I'm also a member of Mt. Airy Art Garage.
